About the Gallery:

Nestled among a grove of towering trees in Wildwood Park is the historical and stately Faethorne House built in 1875.

In 1980, a small group of people interested in establishing an art gallery were given permission to use part of the property and it became Gallery in the Grove on the upper floor of the building. The Bright's Grove Library occupies the lower floor. Gallery in the Grove is a non-profit, charitable organization operated solely by volunteers.
