

Lynn Tait is an award-winning poet/photographer born in Toronto and residing in Sarnia Ontario since the early 70's. In 2004 she picked up her first point & shoot to use riding on the back of her husband's motorcycle. From there she graduated to a DSLR and bridge camera. She became interested in Photoshop, Lightroom and the many plug ins and filters available. Her camera is a tool. The fun begins once on the computer. Lynn's photo art has appeared in books, magazines and has been the cover art for 7 books. She has had her work exhibited locally at Cheeky Monkey, The Lawrence House, Zony's Framing, The Sarnia Lambton Gallery. Her first ever sale was at the Gallery in the Grove! She is a member of the Sarnia Photography Club.
